Online Chess tournament

24 August 2020

An online Chess tournament named KING OF 64 was organized by Eifer, the sports society of IIIT Lucknow on 22/08/2020. The event was three hour long and was conducted on Chess.com. In this mega event , students from various IIIT's took part.

Before the commencement of the actual event , registration forms were floated, posters were released and students from different IIIT's were invited to participate. Tournament was held in Swiss mode which started at 4 pm sharp in which there were 12 rounds of seven minutes each. After a fair evaluation (checked manually and compared with engine moves) results were declared where Abhishek Singh(IIITDM Jabalpur) stood first, Suryansh Tiwari (IIIT Lucknow) second and S.Bala Tejo Kiran (IIIT Trichy) ranked third. Prizes worth Rupees 1500 INR. were distributed online through UPI.

Participants enjoyed a lot and dispersed with a sincere hope that such events should be organized time and again giving participants a chance to display their talents and giving them a source of recreation amidst this pandemic.
